China Needs Christ For Her Salvation, Mr. Yui Tells Parting Students

Special Service Held In Honor Of Departing Collegians By Y. M. C. A.; Leader Makes Eloquent Appeal For Self-Sacrifice

China needs the transforming power, the leadership and spirit of love and sacrifice of Christ.

This was the climax of an eloquent address delivered by Mr. David Z. T. Yui, general secretary of the national committee, Y.M.C.A., at the special service held Sunday in honor of the Chinese students who are leaving for the United States for higher education.

The service was attended by about 800 departing students, officers and members of the associations, foreign friends and members of the Sunday Service league. Mr. S. C. Chu presided. Dr. H. C. Mei read the lessons from the bible. The Sunday Service League choir under the direction of Mr. C. D. Glauque sang. Prof. C. G. Ruby, of the Teachers' College in Nanking, gave a vocal solo, while a quartet consisting of Messrs. Peters, Cameron, Fitch and Glauque also sang. Mr. C. H. Kan, representing the students, responded.

The chairman extended a hearty welcome to the guests on behalf of the association and asked the students to continue to support the Y.M.C.A. in foreign lands and hoped that when they return they would devote their energy to some forward movement similar to that of the Y.M.C.A.

FOUR QUESTIONS

Mr. Yui put all he wished to say to the students in the form of four questions, which he hoped the students would ask themselves from time to time during their stay in the United States.

Said he in part:

"First, what are my ideals in life? It is not necessary for me here to point out that everyone must have some ideals in life. The point is, you should formulate them at once. They will serve you as a rudder would to a ship and a chart or compass would in our sea of life. Set them before you always. If you have not yet chosen them, choose them now and let them serve you continuously in your work.

STUDENT'S MISSION

"Second, why do I go abroad for higher education? Find out exactly why I want to go abroad. Under this heading, there are two sub-headings which I would like to suggest. They also take the form of two questions: What do I want when I get there? I am speaking from experience of myself and hundreds of others. Make your decision now as to what branch of study you want to take up. The earlier you can settle this question, the less embarrassment it will cause you when you get over there. The second part to this heading is what can I give to the people of the country where I am going to reside? You can at least give them the correct idea of our people and our civilization. There is always something worthwhile about China to preach to them. It is our duty to make the facts of our case known to them."

Mr. Yui spoke at length on his experience in the United States during the peace conference. It was fully his intention at first to proceed to Paris. But when the Shantung question came up at the peace table, the Americans were ignorant of the matter. They wanted to know the facts of the case. So Mr. Yui remained in America, and preached on the Shantung question to the people.

Continuing, Mr. Yui said:

DO SMALL THINGS

"The third question is what shall I do upon returning to China? Of course, your answer will be to serve China and the Chinese people. In this connection, I have again two suggestions to make. First, don't begin from the wrong end. Don't try to do the big things or things of national importance. Start your work quietly and you will be recognised in time. Second, don't expect ideal conditions in China. After seeing the splendid systems abroad, you expect to see the same in China. When you fail to see them, you try to create them when you come back. The result is that you will become the worst possimists." I believe that while you should cherish your high ideals, you should be content to build upon the best you can find in the country. It is then that you are able to succeed.

NEED OF CHRIST

"The fourth question you ought to ask is: What is China's greatest need? China has many needs, but which is her greatest? You will be asked this question a thousand times, but the answer lies in another question, which is, what is my greatest need? After all, the greatest need for a nation is the same as the greatest need for its people.

Constitutional Heads Here Invited By Tang Chi-Yao To Proceed To Chungking

Yunnan Tuchun Is Moving His Troops To Upper Yangtsze Stronghold, Defiant Against Present Administration With Which He Is At Outs

Here is the latest telegram from General Tang Chi-yao, Yunnan Tuchun, to Mr. Tang Shao-yi, Chief of the Southern Peace Delegation:

"In reply to your telegram of the 9th inst., I agree with you that the tussle between the Chihli and Anhwei parties, arising from their strife for personal powers, has simply resulted in the transfer of powers from one despotic party to another; that this change is not only far from democratisation, but those actions that have been condemned by the people as illegal and destructive to the country are still being done as unscrupulously as, if not more than before; and that all these are entirely adverse to the object of the southwest, i.e., defense of the constitution and salvation of our country.

"I shall hasten to Chungking with my troops very shortly, and hope you and other administrative directors will go there together with the members of the Parliament for the purpose of planning the national affairs;

OPINIONS DIFFER

"The Northerners do not accord one with another in their opinion as to what course of action to take. Some of them advocate the organisation of National Citizens Convention, while others are in favor of abrogating the Shanghai Peace Conference, taking up separate negotiation of peace and forming a new parliament under the same law of election that gave birth to the Anfu parliament in the sixth year of Chinese Republic.

"Should the former scheme be properly carried out, we would certainly agree to it, as it is in furtherance of democracy. But under the present Peking government which is nothing different from the previous one, it is impossible for a real National Citizens Convention to appear.

Should the latter course be adopted, it would be nothing but an imitation of what was done by the Anfu party whom they attacked and consequently would cause more disturbance in the government.

BACKS SHANGHAI MEETING

"I am always of opinion that the Shanghai Peace Conference is the proper organisation to solve national problems and the most impending questions that the said Conference should settle first are those of law and diplomacy. As to other questions, the views of both sides may be admitted and the Shanghai Conference will have discretion to settle them as they think most fit. The abolition of the tuchun system, the disbandment of troops and the enforcement of democratic principles are also important steps that should be taken in future by the South and the North alike in order to effect the salvation of our country.

"To ensure consistent action I have published the above views by circular telegram. I hope you will strive to achieve this end and let me know the present situation."

PHYSICIAN FINDS ACCIDENT VICTIM IS HER BROTHER

Olin Loveland Is Killed In Motorcycle Tragedy On Siccawei Road

Called to attend an emergency case, a personal injury accident, at the Red Cross Hospital early Sunday morning, Dr. R. L. Loveland-Selmon, who is connected with the hospital, found first that the victim to whom she had been summoned to minister was her brother, and then that he was dead. The youth, Olin A. Loveland, 21 years old, had met his death in a motorcycle accident, the nature of which has not yet been fully explained, on Siccawei Road.

The tragedy was first brought to light by Messrs. A. Verbert and A. Benu, Belgians, residents of the French Concession. About an hour after midnight Saturday they came upon a wrecked motorcycle at the side of Siccawei Road and near it lay the body of the rider. In response to their report to the Bubbling Well Police Station an ambulance was sent to the scene and the body was taken to the Red Cross hospital in the belief that some spark of life might still remain. It was the victim's sister who was called to attend the case and it was she who identified the victim of the accident. He was dead.

Mr. Loveland came to China only recently and was employed in the electrical department of Anderssen, Meyer and Company. His death, according to the verdict of an inquest that was held, was that the death was the outcome of an accident. The funeral was held yesterday morning at Bubbling Well Cemetery.

BOLSHEVIKI RETREAT

London, August 20.—The Poles are now busily engaged in collecting isolated Bolshevik detachments left high and dry after the subsidence of the main flood. It is believed that the broken Bolshevik forces number 100,000 men.

The Poles by their advance on Brest-Litovsk seem to threaten the main Bolshevik forces, nevertheless it cannot yet be said that Warsaw is completely out of danger as the total armed manpower of the Bolsheviks is an unknown quality.

For the moment there seems to be a possibility of the total annihilation of the Bolshevik army, actually engaged, but the military situation is so delicately balanced that a single false step will completely change the outlook.

PIECE GOODS SHOP DAMAGED BY FIRE

Blaze On Sinza Road Subdued By Two Divisions; Coolie Seriously Hurt

Fire in a piece goods shop at B 1651-2 Sinza Road Sunday night did considerable damage, not only to these premises, but also to adjoining shops before it was extinguished by Central and Sinza Divisions. Due to the efforts of the firemen a large quantity of goods that otherwise would have been destroyed was saved when a section of the brigade went to work as a salvage corps after it was seen that the spread of the flames could not be checked.

In fighting the fire the department was seriously hampered when it was found that the nearest hydrant was directly in front of the burning premises at a place where it could not be used by reason of the heat and flames. The piece goods shop was conducted by Woo Ching-sz and its contents were insured to $17,000. Adjoining premises occupied by a crockery shop and by a cigarette and general store also suffered damage.

While on its way to this fire a light motor tender of the Sinza Division while proceeding down Myburgh Road struck a handcart that was being propelled by a coolie and a shaft of the cart was driven into the coolie's chest. He was removed to hospital in a serious condition but it is thought that he will recover.

Indian Given Three Months' Jail Term

Three months' imprisonment and hard labor was imposed on Mula Singh, an unemployed Indian, yesterday in the British Police Court for assaulting a 65-year-old Chinese women.

Sub-Inspector MacKenzie stated that the woman had been examined at the Shantung Road Hospital, where it was found that no ribs were fractured, but her body was bruised to such an extent that it was considered advisable for her to remain for treatment. This, however, she refused to do. She subsequently went to St. Elizabeth's Hospital where another examination confirmed the opinion given at the Shantung Road Hospital.

Complainant's daughter-in-law said that, on the 20th inst., whilst bathing in an upstairs room, she heard her children call out that an Indian was going upstairs. Witness also heard clogs on the stairs, so she barred the door. Then her mother-in-law cried out that the Indian had pushed her downstairs. Going to the verandah, witness saw an Indian run from her house to defendant's house.

Complainant's amah said that she saw the defendant go into the house; she was frightened and ran away, but, after the Indian had gone, she went back and found the old women lying at the foot of the stairs, crying out in pain.

A neighbor also said that he saw the defendant go into the house. Then the old woman fell down the stairs and defendant ran to his own house.

Sub-Inspector MacKenzie said that defendant was brought to Hongkew police station by a crowd of Chinese. He had only a pair of short running pants on. Defendant appeared to have been drinking and he admitted that he had been.

Defendant now denied that he had been drinking. He said that the complainant came to his house and asked for water. He refused to let her have any, as he was bathing at the time. A little later a lot of Chinese pulled him from his house and took him to the police station. He did not go into the woman's house or assault her in any way.

Wellington Koo has transmitted to the Government the official invitation to China to participate in the first meeting of the League of Nations at Geneva.

URGES CARPET WEAVING

Yeh Kung-chow, the new Minister of Communications, has written to various "philanthrophic" factories, pointing out that carpets, valued at 333,000 dollars were exported in 1918 and that similar exports in 1919 amounted to 820,000 dollars, and urging the development of this valuable industry.

It is denied that General Li Shun has resigned, but he has asked for leave. He is already meeting with difficulties owing to various Northern and Southern authorities endeavoring to secure peace by personal negotiation instead of through the delegates. Furthermore, General Li Shun says that the invasion of Fukien is seriously impeding his efforts.

Man Hides Money in Coffee Pot, Then Forgets

CLEVELAND, O.—Eugene Para reported to police Monday night that $54 of his savings which he had hidden in 2 coffee pots in his restaurant, had been stolen. Last night he assured the officers that it was all a mistake.

He explained the money was in a small coffee bag inside the pot. Forgetting the money, he said he placed the pot on a steaming radiator.

The coffee boiled over and with it the $54. "I've found the bag and the money behind the radiator," he said.

Sunday School Workers Of All Parts Of World Meet In Tokio In October

All Of Thousand Delegates Expected At Japanese Capital For International Convention Program Of Which Is Being Arranged By Committees

On October next, Sunday-school workers from many parts of the world will meet in a convention in the city of Tokio, Japan. At least 1,000 are expected from the United States and Canada. Delegates from Great Britain will journey to Japan via Canada and sail on one of the twelve steamers that will leave from Vancouver, Seattle or San Francisco. The number of delegates in Tokio will be limited only by the ability of the local committee to provide accommodations in hotels, homes and the Convention building. Korean Christians are expressing disappointment that a larger number of delegates cannot be assigned to that country. From Korea 200 are expected. In Japan there is keen rivalry among the Sunday-school workers to obtain the much coveted credentials that will admit to the meetings of the Convention.

The program committee, which has for its Chairman, James W. Spencer, is ascertaining who from the various countries will be in attendance at Tokio. From among these, and others who will be especially chosen, a program will be built which will present the work of the Sunday School in its various relations. The theme of the Convention is, "The Sunday School and World Progress."

LIST OF SPEAKERS

Among the speakers who are expected to be present and take part are: Rev. F. B. Meyer, D. D., of London, a part President of the Association; Rt. Hon. T. R. Ferens, M. P., London, President of the World's Association; Rev. Carey Bonner, Secretary of the London Sunday School Union and Joint General Secretary of the World's Association; T. Vivian Pope, representing the "Children's Day" of England; Hon. Justice J. J. Mclaren, Toronto, of the Supreme Court of Canada; Marion Lawrence, General Secretary of the International Sunday School Association of North America and at one time General Secretary of the World's Association; Frank L. Brown, New York, Joint General Secretary of the World's Association; Miss Margaret Slattery of Boston and Miss Jennie Lee Freyser, Louisville. The following Field Secretaries of the Association are expected: Rev. Stephen Trowbridge, Egypt; Rev. E. G. Tewksbury, China; Rev. J. G. Holdcroft, Korea; Rev. J. L. McLaughlin, Philippine Islands; Mr. H. E. Coleman, Japan. More than 600 delegates from the United States and Canada have already applied for reservations on the steamers sailing from Pacific coast ports.

The meetings in Tokio will be held in various parts of the city. The Convention itself will take place either in the Imperial Theater or in a special building that will be erected in one of the parks. In the Y.M.C.A. the exhibit will be set up and in that large auditorium meetings will be conducted for the people of Tokio and vicinity continuously each afternoon and evening. Moving pictures and steropticon slides will be used to show the work of Sunday Schools in all parts of the world. The world's progress in moral reform will be presented by illustrated lectures. The exhibit is now being assembled by a special committee of which Allan Sutherland of Philadelphia is Chairman.

PLANS OUTLINED

The material will be sorted under twenty-two classifications. At the close of the Convention, much of the material will be left as a permanent exhibit in Tokio and the remainder will be distributed among the missionaries who are present. Material showing various types of Sunday-school work will be displayed and explained in the Baptist Tabernacle. Model Sunday School work will be demonstrated in the Reinanzuka Church on alternate afternoon.

Prof. H. Augustine Smith of Boston University has been given full charge of the music, pagentry and religious art. Prof. and Mrs. Smith will journey to Tokio well in advance of the Convention which begins October 5, and drill the singers and pagentry groups who will already have had advance training under local leadership.

In connection with the Convention, there will be tour parties which will visit many mission stations in the Orient. Meetings will be held en route at some of the great centers. These inspirational meetings will also be a feature of the Around the World tour which will follow the Convention. The delegates will not be mere sightseers, but the purpose to make a real contribution to the religious life of the Orient.

'My Old Dutch' Song Revived In London

Chevalier Again Amuses With His Coster Comedy Made Into A Play

London, July 17.—"My Old Dutch," a song which many playgoers of today learned in the nursery, has been made into a play with Chevalier, who sprang into fame as a coster comedian with this song a generation ago, playing the leading part. It was produced this week at the Lyceum, once the habitat of Irving and Ellen Terry, but now the home of the most lurid melodrama.

Even such "highbrows" as the theatrical critics of the six cent morning newspapers grin reminiscently and admit that the play is filled with Chevalier's real comic pathos of the London East End millions. The plot is a faithful development of the "Old Dutch" theme, with the introduction of other songs, such as the immortal ballad of the legacy, involving "The Donkey Shay" to "Knock 'Em in the Old Kent Road." It is straight comedy, however, Chevalier confining himself to singing "Old Dutch" at the end of the second act.

Thanks are also specially due to Messrs. H. O. White, D. McGregor, L. Ladow, C. E. L. Ozerio, P. da Silva, D. M. Guttares, A. M. Diniz and the junior members of the Charity League.

Last but not least the whole success of the Fete rests on the excellent work of the Mothers of the Holy Family Convent.

New Financial Program Is Outlined In Peking

Reorganisation And Retrenchment Are Promised After Talk With President

(Staff Wire To THE CHINA PRESS)

Peking, August 23.—The President recently held a two-hours conference with Minister Chow and other financial authorities on the subject of financial reorganisation and retrenchment.

It was decided to liquidate the arrears of the various ministries and government organs, to audit the expenditures of the parliament and the Shanghai Peace commission, and check up again the matter of provincial military expenditure.

GET HALF SALARIES

The officials of justice are notified that they will receive only half of their salaries this month, and the M.P.'s one third.

Small loans from Tientsin and Peking banks aggregating $1,333,330 have been floated by the Ministry of Finance and the unfortunate officials are promised reimbursement when the treasury is in better shape.

Teaching staffs of government educational institutions have not received their vacation pay.

As shown by a presidential mandate the Central government is trying to carry out a retrenchment policy. At the same time the Premier has ordered the various governmental organs to investigate the number of superfluous officials. The number of advisers and councillors of the president's and the cabinet offices will be reduced by three-quarters. When investigation has been completed the retrenchment policy will be effectively carried out from September 1 next.

BIG SAVING PLANNED

According to a financial authority the administrative expenses of the Central government may be cut down by $450,000 every month by executing this policy.

The president and the premier have discussed with Mr. Chang Chih-tan, minister of the interior, regarding the convocation of a National Citizens' convention. Minister Chang has instructed the officials to gather together the memorandums submitted in connection with this matter and he will draw up plans for consideration at the cabinet meeting. As soon as they have been passed they will be submitted to the chief executive for endorsement and enforcement. This indicates that the prospects of the proposed Citizen's convention are not so gloomy as feared by the people.

ADOPT MILD MEASURES

Generals Tsao Kun and Chang Tso-lin and the government have decided to adopt mild measures in solving the parliament question which will not be dissolved by the Central government. One third only of the yearly expenses for the parliament will be appropriated by the ministry of finance at the present time.

Generals Tsao Kun and Chang Tso-lin and Wu Pei-fu have decided to hold a memorial service for the military officers and soldiers who died during the fighting of Chihli and Anhwei troops at Tientsin and they have wired to Tsao Jui, civil governor of Chihli to make the preparations.

ULSTER TO RULE, CARSON DECLARES

British Failure In Ireland Compels Her To Take Matters In Own Hands

REORGANISE VOLUNTEERS

No Recognition For Sinn Feiners Until They Send Criminals To Scaffold

Belfast, Ireland, July 12.—Addressing as many of the 20,000 Orangemen celebrating today as could get within sound of his voice, Sir Edward Carson, their Grand Master and Ulster Unionist leader, charged the British Government with failure to govern Ireland. He declared that if the British could not handle the situation in South Ireland they should turn the task over to some one who could. He warned the Government that if it did not accept the help Ulster had offered, "We tell you we will take matters into our own hands."

Discussing conditions in Ireland, Sir Edward said:

"I read daily of the whole Government in some place being taken over by the Sinn Fein. I read of county councils swearing allegiance to the Irish Republic. Well, I want to ask what the Government is doing with the county councils taking that course. My opinion is that such councils ought to be dissolved. I read daily of the Sinn Fein police taking part in the government of various towns.

"I say if the British Government is unable to deal with these matters it ought to ask somebody else. It is an ignominious thing for loyal subjects of the Crown to be compelled to admit the authority of those professing to action the name of the so-called Irish Republic. Yet, to my knowledge, there are men in South and West Ireland who, ostensibly at least, have been obliged to throw in their lot with these Sinn Feiners in order to save their persons and property from disaster.

ULSTER VITAL POINT

"We know well that the real battlefield of Ireland in relation to a republic will be Ulster. We know well that their one ambition is to penetrate Ulster and take possession there as they have elsewhere. Do not let us close our eyes to the realties of the situation, whatever may be the consequences.

"Never will we enter into negotiations with the Sinn Fein until of their own volition they have brought to the scaffold the men who are giving our country throughout the world the reputation of being a country of criminals and assassins."

Sir Edward concluded by warning the Government that, as it had refused Ulster's repeatedly proferred help and because of its inability to protect Ulster against the machinations of the Sinn Fein, "we will reorganise in our own defense the volunteers who lent you such splendid help to maintain the Empire during the war."

He added: "But one thing we won't submit to is that we should be left helpless in the face of our enemies, and we tell the Government that come what will, in the last resort we will rely upon ourselves and, under God, we will defend ourselves."

Many wild rumors were afloat in Belfast this morning, one being that a trainload of Sinn Feiners was coming from Cork to attack the city. Investigation proved this, as well as many other reports of trouble, untrue.

Troops in the regular garrison here have been confined to the barracks until Tuesday morning, but military officers took every precaution against disorder, even to arranging for a special hospital service.

NO DISORDER

The celebration of Orangemen's Day had as its great feature the customary parade, in addition to the notable speech by Sir Edward, whose pronouncement on the present situation in Ireland was looked forward to eagerly.

Sir Edward, as usual in such matters, came up fully to expectations. He minced no words, and the enthusiasm reached a climax when he declared in effect that the government had failed to govern Ireland, and that if it could not protect Ulster the volunteers would reorganise, and Ulster would take matters into its own hands.

Every hamlet, village and town in Ulster had some kind of a celebration, and reports over a wide area tonight are that all passed quietly, even in Londonderry, where the two factions are represented as ready to renew the fighting should the military forces relax their vigilance.

Belfast was heavily guarded by soldiers, but the only troops allowed out of barracks were those actually on duty.

Those people in England who hoped that a conciliatory note might be struck in this celebration will be sadly disappointed. There was nothing conciliatory about it from the inscriptions on the banners across the streets denouncing the Sinn Fein to Sir Edward Carson's declaration that the people of the South would of their own volition have to hang those guilty of political murders before Ulster would even consider unity which the sponsors of the Home Rule bill have said they hoped for.

The parade, which it is estimated numbered 25,000, was unique in the amount and variety of music and the kind and number of banners. Every lodge made some attempt at music, and there was a band to every half block of the parade. The banners were gorgeous silken affairs on which were painted scenes depicting the early history of Ulster. There were numerous pictures of King William III on his white horse, crossing the Boyne.

Rain and heavy wind early in the day threatened to destroy these banners, but the return march from Finoghy Park, where the ceremonies were held, was made in beautiful weather.

The Rev. George Timmon, supreme head of the Orange Order in the United States, who is here with a few other Americans for the triennial session of the Imperial Grand Orange Council of the world, speaking at Finaghy Park, said:

"It is said that three million Irish are going to shake the British Empire, well, we have ten million Irish in America and they are not going to shake the American Republic."

DOES YOUR CHILD SUFFER FROM THEM?

Many children in this country are troubled with worms, some of the indications of which are irregular appetite, bad breath, grinding of the teeth in sleep, pain and swelling of the abdomen, irritation in the nose. Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, given for a few days destroy worms, and a marked improvement in appetite and general health follows.

"I would like to make known to all mothers the great value of Baby's Own Tablets," writes Mrs. J. R. Baker, of Lower West Jeddore, N. S., Canada. "My little girl, four months of age, was badly troubled with worms, and I did not appear to be able to get anything to help her permanently until I began using Baby's Own Tablets. She then improved almost at once, and I can sincerely say that they are all they are claimed to be and I would not be without them in the house."

Guaranteed free from opiates and absolutely harmless even to the youngest infant, Baby's Own Tablets are a remedy for indigestion, constipation, simple fever, diarrhoea and teething troubles. They are obtainable from chemists, also at 60 cents the vial post free from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

FIFTEENTH INFANTRY WINS BOTH ENDS OF DOUBLE-HEADER WITH SHANGHAI AND THE NAVY

Sluggers From Tientsin Take First Game From Albany Men With Score 8 To 1 And Second From Locals, Score 2 To 1

Today's Game: Navy vs. 15th Infantry, 4:30 p.m.

By Viola Verclaire

Sunday's base ball games afforded the fans a good day of entertainment, both games being hotly contested for. The soldiers were out to win however, and claimed both games, the last one by the close score of 2 to 1, the winning score being made in the last half of the ninth inning, with two men down.

STREAK OF HARD LUCK

The game between the soldiers and sailors was humdinger until the third inning, when the sailors demonstrated their ability in aviation by going up in the air and allowing the soldiers to score six runs, after two men were out.

The only other feature of this game was furnished by Umpire Chapman, in the second half of the eighth inning, who chased catcher Ferrin from the game for disputing decisions. The "Umps" was certainly right in doing this, as he had cautioned Ferrin on several occasions. The incident was the occasion of much amusement to the 'Gobs" in the grandstand, as they, as well as the fans were with the Umpire.

TODAY'S GAME

The Navy and the Infantry will cross bats again today, game called at 4:30 p.m.

RECORD GAME

The fastest game of the season was played on Sunday between the 15th Infantry of Tientsin and Shanghai, when the latter lost by a score of 2 to 1. Shanghai was handicaped by the loss of Glauque and Porterfield, two of their heaviest hitters, and threaten to get revenge on Thursday, in their next game with the soldiers.

Hutchinson, for the Infantry pitched a very fine game, striking out ten men and allowing only five hits. Terry, for Shanghai, also pitched a good game, but developed a sore arm and was relieved by Tinkham in the eighth inning. "Tink" also pitch-

ROWING CLUB PREPARES FOR AQUATIC SPORTS TO BE HELD HERE THIS WEEK

Interesting Program Is Made Up For Water Events On Next Friday And Saturday; Championships Up For Competition

The arrangements for the Rowing Club's swimming gala and aquatic sports to take place on the evenings of next Friday and Saturday, August 27 and 28, are well under way, thanks to the efforts of the bath committee, and more particularly to those of the energetic honorary secretary, Mr. J. J. Evans.

The following strong list of officials has been prepared, and a glance at same is guarantee enough that the function will be a great success:—Judges:—E. T. Byrne, Esq., Lieut. Harrison, R.N., J. T. Disselduff, Esq., H. N. Olsen, Esq. and W. J. Brown. Umpire:—D. H. Cooke, Esq. Starter:—J. J. Evans, Esq. Check Starter:—T. R. Macdonald, Esq. Timekeepers:—A. W. Olsen, Esq. and F. A. Sampson, Esq. Competitors' Stewards:—B. A. Andersen and W. G. Smith. Judges of Diving:—R. W. MacCabe, D. H. Cooke and W. J. Brown. Decorations:—E. Muller and B. A. Andersen. Advertising, Printing and Programs:—J. J. Evans and T. A. Spedding. Refreshments and Music:—E. A. Ericson and J. R. Harder. The music will be supplied by Prof. d'Aquino's famed orchestra.

The detailed program is as follows:

FIRST EVENING

1-length (final heat) Life Saving Competition.
Ladies' and Boys' Diving;
100 yards club championship.
1-length boy members' handicap.
2-lengths back stroke (final heat).
Naval Race:
2-lengths boy members' handicap.
¼-mile championship of Shanghai.
2-lengths handicap (final heat).
Diving from Springboard.
Water Polo match, "Jiangdahs" vs. Rowing Club.

SECOND EVENING

Obstacle Race:
100 yards championship of Shanghai.
Plunge for Distance (handicap).
1-length boy members' (final heat).
Throwing the Polo Ball Championship of Shanghai.
1-length ladies' (handicap).
Relay Race (club teams).
Blindfold Race.
Diving from Platform.
2-lengths breast stroke (handicap).
Relay Race (ladies and boys).
Pillow Fight.
Water Polo Match, Rowing Club vs. S.I.S.C.

It will be seen that the above lengthy and varied program follows closely the lines laid down in former years, and two excellent evenings' sport is assured.

Featherstonhaugh is entered for the club 100 yards championship and may be relied on to give a good account of himself in his defense of his title to this honor no less than in the 100 yards championship of Shanghai. He covered the three lengths last year in 60 2-5 seconds and few of those entered are likely to equal this performance. It is reported that only Berthet and Brown will compete with him in the club event, but in the open championship Mears will no doubt be a starter.

Toronto Player Sets Batting Record

The Toronto Club, which gave Vernon Spencer, said to be a phenom, to the Giants in exchange for Benny Kauff, has another player in its ranks who is making a strong bid for fame. He is Frank O'Rourke, the Leaf's shortfielder, who has just set a record for making six hits in six times at bat twice in two days. Batting against Rochester pitchers recently, O'Rourke made two homers, a double and three singles, thereby duplicating his record made one week ago in Reading, when he hit three doubles and three singles, which is a feat never accomplished before in one season, even in the big leagues. Dave Bancroft made six hits in one game against the Phillies last week, this being only the second time a player equalled this record since 1902 in the major leagues.

The best batting record is seven hits in seven tries, made in 1892 by Wilbert Robinson, of the Baltimore Nationals, now manager of the Dodgers.

Just Dope

The new flag that was raised at the Race Course Diamond on Saturday, was a gift of Mrs. J. Harold Dollar, instead of Mrs. Robert Dollar as before stated.

It would be well for the fans to note that there is some very fine base ball being played at the Race Club Grounds this week and it would be a great help to the Club if they would turn out and help meet the expenses for this series.

Goodman pitched a good game for the Navy, and if he had had any kind of support, would have made things more interesting. He also scored the Navy's only run, getting a homer in the fifth.

This fellow Madge looks better every day, besides playing third base in fine style, he relieved catcher Ferrin and caught a beautiful game. Ferrin had his thumb nail severely torn, during the game.

Paris Police Lose Historic Sabres

Paris, July 17.—M. Raux, prefect of police of Paris, is looking for a purchaser of his stock of 40,000 sabres, which are to be taken from the gendarmes.

The police here will be equipped with American magazine pistols. This is the latest of M. Baux's ideas for modernising the Paris police force, but it is causing consternation among the devotees of French tradition, who declare that for more than nine centuries the police here have worn side arms.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying power, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them wilfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"Your preparation known as Castoria I have used for years in children's complaints and I have found nothing better."
JOHN J. LEPPA, M. D.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

"I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy."
A. F. PESLER, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"For several years I recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."
EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., New York City.

"I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild, laxative effect and freedom from harm."
EDWARD PARRISH, M. D.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Your Castoria is a meritorious household remedy. It is purely vegetable and acts as a mild cathartic. Above all, it does no harm, which is more than can be said of the great majority of children's remedies."
VICTOR H. COFFMAN, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."
J. A. PARKER, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

Sues For Steaming Curls Out Of Wigs

London, July 17.—That Willie Clarkson, widely known to theatrical men and women, prizes every little curl in his wigs was shown in an action heard by Justice Salter in the King's Bench Division. Mr. Clarkson, who is a maker of theatrical wigs, asked for an injunction to restrain the proprietors of the "J. P." Restaurant, in Shaftesbury avenue, W., from creating a nuisance, in that steam from a boiler in their restaurant penetrated the wall of his wig shop and took the curl out of his wigs. It was the second time the case had been before the court, at the first hearing a decision having been reached to name a surveyor to investigate the complaint and to abide by his report.

The surveyor reported that Mr. Clarkson should have judgment for £27, which he claimed as nominal damages for the curls having been taken out of his wigs, and that the defendant concern should end the trouble about which Mr. Clarkson complained.

Unsolicited Testimony!

The Manager, Electricity Department, Shanghai Municipal Council. — 7th August, 1920

Dear Sir,

Due to the fact that we are FAIL TO MAKE PROFIT by using an engine, which by its SLOWNESS in work, EXPENSIVE in charges and also DIRTY and NOISY. The engine we are now using is 12 H.P. Having learned that an ELECTRIC MOTOR is a HASTY and ENERGETIC worker, it works QUIETLY, expends ECONOMICALLY, locates only a SMALL SPACE, and is EASY TO OPERATE. By the above several GOODNESS we would like to make a change and it might satisfy us when taking into use. Hope you will send us one for our benefit at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

KINGMAN & BROS.

How to Preserve the Teeth

In order to keep the teeth in good condition scientific precaution must be taken. Through negligence, decay and numerous other affections such as tooth-ache, dental periostitis esteo-periostitis, necrosis of the jaw, etc., may arise. During the process of ingestion there are settled on the teeth, some deposits of mineral and organic matters, called tartar, which possesses a morbid power of pressing the gum. As an inevitable result of the presence of this tartar, the teeth will become elongated and movable and will, by degrees absorb away the enamel, leading ultimately to the decay and degeneration of the teeth. The tartar is so hard and resistant to the process of brushing that it cannot be scraped off except with dental instruments specially devised for that purpose.

Dr. KINGMAN offers to the public his service for preserving their teeth at an annual subscription Fee of $10.00 per head to be paid in advance.

The work to be done by Dr. KINGMAN to the subscribers consists in:—

(1) Cleaning of the teeth quarterly

(2) Filling with gold platinum alloy only, when the teeth present holes.

(3) Inspecting the teeth at any time at the desire of the subscribers.

Payment will be acknowledged by Banker's Receipt pending issue of the Debentures.

In the event of any applicant not being allotted the full amount applied for, the amount over-applied for will be repaid in full, plus interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the date payment was received in Shanghai or London to the due date of repayment in Shanghai, as notified to the applicant by special notice from the Council.

(5) The Loan will be redeemed at par on June 30, 1950, but may be redeemed by the Council in whole or in part on June 30, 1930, and/or on any subsequent date or dates on which the half-yearly interest is payable, subject to the Council giving six calendar months' notice in the Municipal Gazette and Public Press of Shanghai. In the event of any partial redemption of the loan the numbers of the Debentures to be redeemed will be decided by drawing. The numbers of such drawn Debentures will be notified in the Municipal Gazette and Public Press of Shanghai not less than three months prior to the date of repayment.

Application forms can be obtained on and after May 1, from the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, No. 12 The Bund, or from the Treasurer and Comptroller, Finance Department, 24a Kiangse Road, to whom all enquiries should be addressed.

The Conspiracy

THE details of the Great Conspiracy are gradually leaking out. Still there may be doubts regarding any part played in the conspiracy by Semenoff. And the Japanese stand to gain nothing if they set up this redoubtable free lance in a kingdom upon which they have designs themselves. If Semenoff became the Monarch of a state comprising Eastern Siberia, North Eastern Mongolia, Northern Manchuria and the Usuria where could the Japanese look for their Northwestward expansion? Where would they look for the mineral wealth which they covet, which is essential to them and which is known to abound in the regions in which they are credited with desiring to set up Semenoff.

They are treating with Semenoff the so-called "strong man of Eastern Siberia," as they treated with the Anfu party, simply to despoil the territories in which he holds temporary dominance. When he can give them no more they will chuck him over just as they have done their Anfu pals. And authoritative declarations of official neutrality will be made in the Japanese diet for the consumption of an all too credulous world.

Japan's aggrandisements are not made by her officials but by unofficial aggrandising departments, which can be repudiated the moment Japan's action is called in question. The results of these unofficial departments' working are, however, never given out by Japan. Official travesties of the truth are nothing to a nation which has been nurtured upon this class of diplomacy. The moment Japan officially denies any statement in regard to her conduct in China it is time those entrusted with the business of the other legations in China looked deeper into the matter involved. If this is done it will invariably be found that Japan's unofficial action has gone much further than was originally supposed.

Semenoff has many things to sell in Manchuria at the present time. None of these things really belongs to him, but he judiciously annexed them in the various districts, in which he has held sway or waged war. He has got to find money to pay his army somehow and he does. If he did not annex these useful and valuable commodities some one else would. He has much of this spoil of war under Japanese protection and Japan is his best market for his annexations. It is not a country given to enquiring into such niceties as "how did you come by this?" when it suits it to observe with the blind eye.

Now all the employes of the Chinese Eastern Railway are Semenoff's men or are dominated by his sway. In this sense the railway is under his control and the true owners of the system the Chinese Eastern Railway Company (Russian and Chinese Civilians) have no say in the matter. The Russo-Asiatic Bank representing the Russian and Chinese shareholders has to stand aside and let Semenoff and his satellites do what they like. The Japanese are playing with Semenoff, flattering, entertaining and cajoling him so as to induce him to take over the entire railway system, ousting the lawful Russian and Chinese shareholding owners.

When he has been induced to do this, the inevitable split will come between the Japanese and Semenoff. The latter will be called a bandit and decried as a menace to the integrity of Japan, trouble between Semenoff's soldiers and Japanese soldiers will be engineered by Japanese agents. Blood will be spilt. The Japanese army will be used to suppress Semenoff and all he stands for and China will be calmly told: "Since you could not keep Semenoff and his following in hand we are going to occupy the whole of Manchuria and take over the Chinese Eastern Railway as one of the Japanese state railways; your railway guards have been unable to protect good Japanese lives. In fact we strongly suspect you although we have no proof of your having been implicated in the loss of those good lives! You must remember the very awkward position in which we placed you by saying your men of war took part in the affair of Nikolaievsk. You know it takes a long time to overtake a lie. If we say now you have raised trouble along the line you will take a long time in disproving it and meanwhile we will have consolidated our ownership of the Chinese Eastern Railway and our occupation of the whole of Manchuria."

Semenoff is a tool of the Japanese; he is not a party to the Japanese conspiracy against Manchuria and the Chinese Eastern Railway. If he knew there was such a conspiracy he would sever all connection with the Japanese. While being the tool of the Japanese he fondly thinks that the cunning Japanese are his tools and the sooner he wakes to the true situation the better for him, his followers and his country. Japan is not going to be too easily set aside from her designs on Manchuria and Eastern Mongolia and the acquisition of the Chinese Eastern Railway is a step towards the accomplishment of that design.

The Japanese Gendarmerie are carrying out a very strict surveillience of all nationals except Japanese, now travelling in Manchuria. Japan desires that no inkling of the great conspiracy or the methods employed therefore should get to the knowledge of the world. Anyone suspected of making investigations is given a most uncomfortable time; in fact travel is made impossible for them. On the South Manchurian Railways the Japanese Gendarmerie have monopolised the sovereign rights of China and demand every detail of information regarding foreigners travelling in Manchuria. The right of seeing passports and the right of search belongs by international law to the sovereign state through which an individual may travel. Do the Japanese in South Manchuria, in threatening to arrest other nationals unless they show their passports, attempt to disclose the fact that South Manchuria is an integral part of the Japanese Empire? The Japanese officials have assumed this status for South Manchuria although Japanese Ministers will continue to deny in the diet any Japanese designs on Manchuria. What value can be placed upon the statement of a Japanese Minister when Japanese officials give such statement the lie direct? It is time the world and the countries with trade interests in Manchuria knew the official status of Japan in Manchuria! If Japan has no official status in that rich country then it is time anything pertaining to Japanese officialdom was shown the open door of Manchuria and told to go.

We have had enough of Japanese plottings and intrigulngs and persons with the trade interests of their own country at heart should not contribute to those plottings and intrigues by remaining silent when information concerning them comes to hand. What may seem a small and negligble thing to the individual, when taken in conjunction with a lot of similar small things noticed by other individuals may in the end disclose systematic intrigue. THE CHINA PRESS by codifying these various incidents has the power which no individual possesses to call check mate to Japan's designs in China. Our columns are open to authentic information and all who do not avail of these open columns when they discover any underhand Japanese intrigue are doing a dis-service to their own country and to China.

Correspondence

LOVE AND THE CENSORSHIP

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir.—I am of the opinion that Chinese parents will be only too pleased to know that the Mission Schools exercise a certain amount of supervision over the correspondence of their daughters entrusted to the care of mission schools. I admit that a free choice of the young people themselves would work out in some cases quite well among Chinese as in the case with Occidentals, but for the majority of the 400 millions the selection of the parents is the wiser of the two. Chinese marriages as a rule prove quite happy, but of course, as in every other matter, there are exceptions.

Yours truly,
A. FOREIGNER.

HARBORING THE ANFUITES

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Sir,—"Keep up the boycott. A nation boycotted is within sight of surrender"—President Wilson in a speech in California last year. It was well-said. We have been and are still boycotting the goods of our Eastern neighbor who has been so continuously oppressing us. But in certain parts of the country, the spirit is dying.

The asylum granted by the Japanese Legation to nine of the ten outlawed Anfuites in Peking is engendering a great deal of public indignation. The Japanese evidently are not yet aware of our public sentiments. Why not strengthen the boycott movement now? Let the Government encourage it as a protest against Japan's action in harboring the outlaws! Yours etc.,

TSIANG PAO-LIEN.

A WOMAN VOTES FOR COX

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir.—The general saying is that woman does not understand politics and that she is governed by her emotions entirely in voting.

That may be so, and it may also be the reason why I am preferring Gov. Cox for President of the United States.

I have read a good deal about Gov. Cox and his work and ideals as he has demonstrated them, and it can be noted very plainly that the principle of his progress has always been based on Humanitarian Ideas.

The State Constitutional Reforms he inaugurated, such as the Convict and Prison Reforms and Justifiable Labor Legislation show that the man is progressive and liberal in his views.

The political misrepresentations of the League of Nations may also be complicated for women.

But the shining fact stands out in all its glory that this great idea has its inception entirely in the spirit of establishing a harmonious condition that will prove a blessing to humanity present and future.

If there is anything in this world that can prevent more wars such remedy should be found and it may be that in the final organisation of the League of Nations it may exist; it is at least the best we have before us.

Gov. Cox has become the foremost standard bearer in our country of this idea thus giving us all an opportunity of registering our desire on this most vital issue of all.

It is therefore with the greatest hope for his success that I take this most splendid opportunity of registering my vote with you in favor of Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio for President of the United States.

Yours very truly,
MARGARET ANDERSEN.

ONE FOR HARDING

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir.—Although Mr. Harding would not have been my choice as a candidate for the Presidency I would give him my vote for one reason if for no other, i.e. he believes in keeping out of European politics.

In my estimation Washington was the ideal statesman and his admonition to "beware of entangling alliances" was never more needed than it is today.

I thought Franklin Roosevelt's recent speech was absolutely absurd. If our government followed his ideas we would be continually embroiled in foreign affairs. I hope Mr. Cox is defeated.

Yours very truly,
EDGAR FENNEMAN.

The Laborer's Question To The M.P.

Mr. Lambert, M.P., told the Commons this story last week.

"A farm laborer came to me and said:

"'My wages are fixed by the Wages Board at 42s. a week, while my son working on the railway gets 59s. What's the reason of it?'"

Mr. Lambert could not explain. That laborer's son is now to receive 67s. a week—25s. more than the agricultural laborer. "I cannot help thinking that the Government have got into a thundering muddle," added Mr. Lambert, amid a chorus of "Hear, hear."

Two girl friends of mine once stayed at a tiny hotel in Connemara years ago. It was plain but clean. The only other visitor was a soldier who was fishing there. In the morning my friends demanded a bath. Mary, the maid, a comely Connemara girl, promised it immediately. But the day brightened and it did not come. The old tassel bell was hauled. Mary came smiling. "It would be here now—this very minnit." It came not. One of the girls dashed out into the passage to find Mary on her knees looking unashamed through a keyhole. "One minuit, Miss, one minnit." Mary turned a happy face. "Ye will have it this verra minnit whatever; the Captain is just stepping out of it."

S. V. Richards of Richland township has devised an original method of clearing his barns and granaries of rats, says an exchange. He subjects them to gas attacks by attaching a hose to the exhaust pipe of his Ford car. He closes all the crevices under the barns, inserts the hose, speeds his engine a short time and the work is done. He tried out this method and found that forty rats were overcome with the fumes.

The Buckingham Burial Board now demand that inscriptions for grave stones must be taken from the Bible or from books by standard authors. This is to put a stop to tombstone doggerel. In an Oxford churchyard appears the following:

He's crafts-master and king of good fellowes.
Yet when he came to the hour of his death
He that made bellowes could not make breath.

If the tombstone doggerel is to disappear then try and remember some that you have seen or heard and give them permanency in this colyum.

Russians—By Witter Bynner

AN ENGLISHMAN

I went, an Englishman, among the Russians,
Set out from Archangel and walked among them,
A hundred miles,
Another hundred miles,
A moujik among moujiks,
Dirty as earth is dirty,
And found them simple and devout and kind,
Met God among them in their houses—
And I returned to Englishmen, a Russian,

A DRUNKARD

They ask me what I sing about—
Who knows?
Vodka baked me in my innards
Drops of it are in my beard,
And I find my wife as wicked
As I feared;
For she barred the door against me
And I haven't any roof,
O she sent the devil walking
On his hoof!
The canary puts her babies
In a cosy little nest
And the wolf, for all his prowling,
Goes to rest—
But I haven't any family
And I might as well be dead,
O I haven't any corner
For my head!
They ask me what I sing about—
Who knows?
The earth my hostess
And the sun my host.

A MISERABLE MAIDEN

I'm a miserable maiden
And my petticoat is torn—
Though I'm thirty, not a baby
Have I borne.
Though my face is very pretty,
Yet a face can never save,
And they'll carry me unmarried
To the grave.
I have gone to many ikons
And my tears came out and ran
And I begged the saints for mercy
And a man.
Nursing other people's babies
For eleven years I've done,
But I haven't any children,
Not a one!
O Madonna, my Madonna,
Pity me and make me brave,
Till they lay me, cold and single,
In the grave.

AN OLD MAN

I shall die soon;
For I hear a voice inside my skull,
Blowing like a wind.
My son, his wife and all of them want me to die.
I can do no more work,
And so they beat me and beat me
And give me no sugar in my tea.
Last week they put me to work making my coffin.
They hurried me, lest I should die
And leave my work undone.
Now that it's done, they make me sleep in it—
Yes, every night they make me sleep in it.
If I should oversleep some day—
They might—before I—
There!
You hear it now?
That wind inside my skull,
Trying to blow my soul out!

A CONCERTINA PLAYER

I earn my kopecks at the beerhouses,
Or on a pilgrimage;
And—shall I tell you?—
I often play to beggars—and they pay me
I lost my eye by hoping to be rich.
Some Germans built a factory,
And people said to all the boys:
"Go work there and be rich!"
You know the German way—
Using up men for making things
When what are things for but men?
Yet when they took my eye with their machinery
They made me this, they made a man of me.
They turned me to my music,
As you see me,
Tramping, never starving,
In prison, never sorry,
My music and my freedom and the road—
The earth my hostess
And the sun my host.

A PROPHET

Tomorrow is Elijah's Day!
The world comes to an end!
Release your souls, release your souls,
For whoso in his body keeps his soul
Upon that dreadful day
Is damned!
Hang yourselves and drown yourselves,
Die by the knife, the gun, the rope,
All shall please God!
And if your women and your children falter
Then kill them first,
The cheerful giver pleaseth God!
I take my leave of you,
I lead the way.
Hand me the rope,
Make sure the noose will slip . . .
Forgive me if I have not saved your souls,
As I forgive you for not listening.
My mother I forgive for bearing me,
My father for begetting me,
Mankind for being like me.
So farewell!
Receive me—
God!

Text Of Message Acclaiming President Wilson Adopted Unanimously By Democratic Convention

San Francisco, June 28.—The Democratic National Convention today, on motion of Governor Gardner of Missouri, directed Chairman Cummings to send to President Wilson this message, which was adopted by unanimous vote of the convention:

In recognition of the fact that the mantle of Jackson and Jefferson has fallen on your shoulders as the unquestioned leader of our party, the hosts of democracy, in national convention assembled, have directed me to send you the following resolution of appreciation and greeting:

The Democratic Party, assembled in national convention, extends to the President of the United States its admiring and respectful greetings.

For seven of the most fateful years in the history of our country Woodrow Wilson has occupied and by his character, learning and power has adorned the highest office in the gift of his countrymen.

He has initiated and secured the adoption of great progressive measures of immeasurable value and benefit to the people of the United States.

As the Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States he has led the patriotic forces of his country through the most momentous struggle in history and, without check, reserve or retardation to an honorable part in the immortal victory for liberty and democracy won by the free nations of the world.

We hail these achievements, Sir, and are proud that they have been accomplished under your Administration.

We rejoice in the recovery of your health and strength after months of suffering and affliction, which you have borne with courage and without complaint.

We deeply resent the malignant onset which you have most undeservedly been called upon to sustain from partisan foes, whose judgment is warped and whose perceptions are obscured by a party malice which constitutes a lamentable and disgraceful page in our history.

At this moment, when the delegates to this convention from every State in the Union are about to enter upon their formal proceedings, we pause to send an expression of cheer and admiration and of congratulation.

We rejoice and felicitate you upon your speedy recovery from your recent illness and congratulate America that, though temporarily blocked in body, you have been able, with unclouded vision and undaunted courage, to press on for the great reforms which you have fathered for the preservation of peace throughout the world in the interest of humanity and the advancement of civilisation. Long may you live to serve America and the world!

Playing golf at the age of eighty-one, and playing, as usual, on the winning side, John D. Rockefeller says: "I enjoy every minute." Mr. Rockefeller has learned quite early that life is a pleasant thing. Cornaro, famous Italian, who lived to 105, said: "I had to live to be ninety to learn that the world is beautiful."

On his birthday Mr. Rockefeller got the good news that the scientific institute established by him has probably conquered yellow fever, not for a few years, but for all time.

He also learned that his Peking establishment to fight disease is about to open its doors in China, carrying the battle of science into Asia, whence so many of the worst diseases start on their travels.

The world will be indebted to John D. Rockefeller a thousand years from now, and after that, for the fight he has made against disease by prevention.

But, above all else, the world will remember and thank Rockefeller for having proved that competition is wasteful and unnecessary, Mr. Rockefeller's charge for that information, perhaps two or three billions in all, is a reasonable charge.

What Rockefeller and others own now the people will own some day. And they will build a monument inscribed.

"To John D. Rockefeller, who proved that it could be done, that an individual and therefore a nation could control natural sources of wealth."

Is grammar, with all the tears that little boys and girls shed over it, really necessary? Walter Guest Kellogg, a member of New York State's Board of Regents, says not. Many teachers are horrified at the statement. But the iconoclastic regent has facts with him.

Shakespeare never saw or heard of an English grammar. No such book existed in his day. Yet he wrote English well. The only grammar he ever saw was the Latin grammar at Stratford, the book that supplied every word of Latin used in his plays, and, all by itself, proves the idiocy of the Baconian theory.

Milton never saw an English grammar.

In the old days grammars were written only to teach languages a child could not hear spoken. It was taken for granted that a child's native language, including the correct use of it, could be absorbed by listening and reading.

Unfortunately, millions of children at home, hear their language miserably spoken, and distorted. But a few hours of grammar study will not undo years spent in hearing and using language not correct.

In one of his powerful editorials Frank Munsey rejoices to hear that one hundred thousand men, organised by the Department of Agriculture, are working on the farms and paid seven dollars a day. Says Mr. Munsey, the picture "comes welcome to the mind's eye. May it replace forever that of the brutal and dreaded vagabonds, carriers of I. W. W. cards and incendiary matches, who have tyrannised over the crop area increasingly of late years."

Perhaps, as Frank Munsey well knows, there would not have been so many "brutal and dreaded vagabonds" if wages formerly had been seven dollars a day. Brutal pay makes brutal men. Good pay creates ambition and makes better men.

How the mind craves what is new, really new, and how little attention it pays to familiar things.

A cat ran up a tree, chased by a dog. While it was in the tree, two kittens were born, fell to the earth and were torn by the dog. Everybody will read about that and think about it, for at least a second. That is one second more than the average reader will devote to the statement that a poor woman has been dispossessed with a young baby.

Choosing A Wife

BY REV. DR. J. R. STRATON
(Pastor Calvary Baptist Church, New York City)

There is in the 29th Chapter of Genesis, and the 11th verse, a most remarkable statement. It is written there: "And Jacob kissed Rachael, and lifted up his voice and wept."

All the world loves a lover. Consequently there is perennial interest in Jacob's affair of the heart with Rachael. Just why Jacob wept under such delightful circumstances is a mystery which has long puzzled exegetes and philosophers. Doubtless they must have been tears of joy, born of the realisation that his quest of a soulmate and life companion was happily ended.

In choosing a wife a right conception of the relationship of the sexes is of great importance. Woman is a complement, not a supplement of man. She is a forethought, not an afterthought. She is an indispensable and not an incident in man's life. Without woman, man remains a fraction, while the two combined make an integer. In choosing a wife, therefore, the wise man of today will choose a comrade, and not a mere consort.

CHOOSE CHARACTER

Again, in making the choice of a wife, a man should choose a character and not a complexion. Beauty is good if accompanied by other things. But mere physical beauty, unless there is a spiritual beauty to transfigure and glorify it, does not amount to much at last.

A man may while away idle moments with the fast and flippant maiden. He may giggle with her, dance with her, drink with her, and fondle her, but when it comes to marrying, even a lax type of man will look in another direction. He will seek one who has the pride and self-respect that do not brook familiarities and that maidenly modesty and reserve which constitute the seal of true womanhood. He will chose a woman who does not wear her complexion in the bureau drawer ad one who realise the value of peroxide as a disinfectant, rather than as a hair dye.

A HOME BULLDER

The wise man will select as his life companion one who appreciate the value of little things in the home. The prosaic arts of housekeeping are far more important facters of happiness than most people without experience imagine. Every young woman ought to be taught how to cook as a part of the education. Whether she ever has to do it personally or not, she ought to know the art. Many a home has been wrecked by poor cooking. Divorce and indigestion are often in direct ratio. Melancholia, crossness and the desire for strong drink are often the result of poorly prepared and indigestible food.

The art of making a home, at last, is one of the highest arts that this world knows. The beautiful word wife comes from a word which means a weaver. Wherever a true wife comes, home is always around her, and she is a weaver of happiness. Ruskin has well said of such a one that the stars may be the canopy over her head, the glow-worm in the night's cold grass be the fire at her feet; but home is where she is, and for a noble woman it stretches far around—better than houses celled with cedar or painted with vermilion, shedding its quiet light for those who else were homeless."

The woman who makes a sweet, beautiful home, charming it with love, prayer and purity, is doing the noblest work that her hands can find to do beneath the skies.

The Way To Woman's Heart

BY S. E. KISER

(American men do not know how to love.—Ibanez)

I've often wished I might discover
The way to win with womankind;
I realise that as a lover
One should be frenzied, also blind;
But I'm too cold, too calm or lazy,
Or else my training has been bad;
At least I never have gone crazy
To make a lovely lady glad.

I know now why it was that Kitty
Let all my pleading go for naught!
She scorned me, though a touch of pity
Was in her final word, I thought.
Oh, if I had but dared to grab her,
Or frisked a gleaming blade about
While hinting that I meant to stab her,
She would have worshipped me, no doubt.

And that affair with Maude; I made her
A dozen offers, all in vain!
I should have learned to serenade her,
Twanging a sweet, impassioned strain.
If I had made her father madder
And yanked her from bed, at night,
And borne her down a shaky ladder,
She might have made by future bright.

When I was cooing things to Lily
I might have claimed her for my own
By letting passion make me silly—
Alas, if I had only known!
My chance is gone—'tis lost forever;
I've found the way to woman's heart,
But I possess a wife who never
Permits me to display my art.
